

Concentration of broadcast media ownership reduces the range of content available to the citizenry of our democracy. In effect, it stifles free speech by privatizing the airwaves (which Federal law and precedent establish as public property), is therefore unconstitutional, and, in thereby stifling dissent, will make us look fascist. Please do the right thing: encourage a greater diversity of ownership and public debate: enrich our democracy.